

CALLING ALL EDUCATORS

WE NEED YOU

SPRING 2020 ILEARN SCORING OPPORTUNITY

WHAT IS THIS OPPORTUNITY?

In Spring 2019, 332 Indiana educators participated in scoring the ILEARN tests!

Many educators shared positive feedback about this process; it enabled them to learn more about the scoring process and obtain hands-on experience.

The American Institutes for Research (AIR) and Measurement Incorporated (MI) are recruiting Indiana educators to be involved in the scoring process for the upcoming ILEARN assessment in Spring 2020.

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS?

- Currently employed as an educator at an accredited Indiana school
- Currently licensed by State of Indiana (e.g., instructional, administrative, school services)
- Access to a computer/online device that meets the minimum technical requirements, high-speed internet access, and a secure work area
- Demonstrate ability to apply scoring criteria as directed and maintain consistent and reliable scoring throughout the project
- Willing to engage in a repetitive task situation and maintain confidentiality

WHAT IS THE REQUIRED COMMITMENT AND PAY RATE?

ILEARN Operational Scoring Window:
April 22 - June 5, 2020

Work Hours and Commitment:

- Teachers
 - Evening Shift
 - 6 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET
 - Required Commitment:
 - Three nights per week for three weeks
 - $16.00 hourly rate
- Instructional Coaches
 - Day Shift
 - 8:30 a.m. - 4:15 p.m.
 - Required Commitment:
 - Three to four total days
 - $16.00 hourly rate

HOW DO I FIND OUT MORE?

- Educators will be able to apply beginning on January 13, 2020.
- An educator scorer FAQ document will be available on January 13, 2020.
- Please contact the AIR Indiana Assessment Helpdesk (airindianahelpdesk@air.org) if you have any questions.