A panel of Deaf business owners will share their experiences of starting and running their own businesses, training with their staff, and responding to questions from the audience. Join us to learn more about how Deaf business owners overcome their ways to compete against all odds, by adapting to their workplace.

NC DSDHH Wilson Regional Center's Deaf Services Specialist, Meredith De Naples will facilitate the Zoom meeting.

To RSVP, send an email to Meredith De Naples, and a link and meeting ID will be provided.

Anyone is welcome to participate and learn more about how Deaf people can have a successful retail career!
