Do you wonder what's next for your student with disabilities?
Are you looking to prepare them for a post-high school transition?

The Pre-ETS STAR virtual training for students with disabilities is here to help prepare them for a bright future beyond high school. Exceptional Children's Assistance Center and Disability:IN:North Carolina are pleased to announce that we will be offering the STAR program, a Pre-Employment Transition Services (Pre-ETS) to students with disabilities (ages 16-21) beginning in Fall, 2022. The STAR program will serve students with disabilities from across the entire state, including students who attend public schools, charter schools and students who are homeschooled via online instruction.

The STAR Program provides classes for students in:

- Self-Advocacy Skills for work and life
- Work Readiness Training
- Career Exploration & Skill Alignment
- Career Mentoring

While open to all students with disabilities ages 16-21 with an IEP or 504 Plan. Additionally, STAR will also offer unique opportunities for parents and caregivers to partner with their student(s) in learning and planning for the post-high school transition. Space is limited and all students will be required to meet the eligibility criteria to be considered.
