COMBATTING HUNGER

The County of Los Angeles is committed to feeding our most vulnerable communities during the Coronavirus pandemic. We are mobilizing public agencies, nonprofits, and volunteers to provide meals to anyone in need during the long months to come. Visit <https://covid19.lacounty.gov/food/> for more information.

- Continue to provide nutritious meals to all students at “Grab & Go Food Centers” at 63 locations from 8 a.m. -11 a.m.
- Issuing additional CalFresh benefits up to the maximum allowed per family and allowing CalFresh recipients to purchase groceries online for delivery from Walmart and Amazon.
- Completed over 106,166 meal and grocery deliveries to seniors and people with disabilities across four current projects.
- To date, the #LetsFeedLACounty initiative has held 9 drive-thru food distribution events, distributing 236 tons of food to 13,134 households.
- WDACS began contracting with restaurants to expand program. Expect to serve additional 1,000 seniors week of June 8 using restaurant prepared meals. Food box deliveries to the 5,600 seniors on the WDACS waiting list begins week of June 8. For this, we secured 6,000 20-lb boxes of shelf-stable food for distribution and engaged Amazon to deliver at no cost. Total meals served to since May 12: 110,400.
- DPSS reports a 130% increase in Cal Fresh applications since March
- PHFE reports a 20% increase in WIC applicants since March
- Distribution from the Food Bank’s two distribution centers has increased by 80% compared to the first two months of 2020, and this time last year. For more information Click Here.

SENIOR CARE

LA County and the City of Los Angeles are providing free meals to adults age 60 and older who are impacted by the COVID-19 crisis. Meals are provided at distribution sites or via home-delivered meals. View the map below for information about each site. Adults age 65 and older must send a family member, friend or caregiver who is under the age of 65 to pick up meals at their assigned site. Call 1-800-510-2020 to request services.
