

Post-Master's Certificate (PMC) in Instructional Coaching

The Post-Master's Certificate in Instructional Coaching will offer professional preparation and development to educational personnel who are employed in or aspire to positions such as:

- instructional coach
- curriculum facilitator
- school improvement coach
- assistant principal or principal
- subject area coach in public schools, charter schools, and private schools.

Apply Now -- <https://gradapply.uncg.edu/apply> -- DUE June 1, 2022

Program of Study

Students will enroll in both:

- SES 761: Coaching and Supervision of Teaching and Learning
- ELC 736: Leadership for Teaching and Learning.

Students will choose from one of four electives (as offered):

1. SES 753: Issues and Trends in Special Education
2. TED 728: Topics in Curriculum and Instruction
3. TED 729: Topics in Math and Science Education
4. TED 765: Research in Equity Education

Students will also successfully complete SES 749: Internship in Specialized Education. This course will provide active opportunities to understand the roles of instructional coaches, undertake practice activities typical of instructional coaches, and debrief instructional coaching practice with the principal and/or UNC Greensboro faculty member who has knowledge and experience in coaching and supervising.

These courses will include preparation and support for face-to-face and e-coaching.

All courses are offered online and qualify for reduced tuition.

This certificate can be completed in three semesters.

Application materials must include:

- Master's degree from an accredited institution
- GPA of 3.0 or higher in the master's degree program
- Three (3) letters of recommendation
- All additional required materials of The Graduate School at UNC Greensboro

For more information, please contact
Dr. Marcie Rock (mlrock@uncg.edu)