Wolverhampton is proud to be hosting the men and women's Cycling Time Trial as part of the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games on Thursday 4 August between 10am - 4pm. The races begin at our wonderful West Park before heading through the city into Dudley and South Staffordshire before returning to the finish line, also at West Park. Such a big event means there will be all day road closures and diversions in place, so please make sure you see how you might be affected on the day. And don't worry if you don't have tickets at the start and finish line in West Park, you can get front row views by watching along the route, or come along to our brilliant Festival Site in the city centre where you can enjoy the action, entertainment, food, drink and much more. Enjoy the Games!
