RE: ADAPTED PHYSICAL EDUCATION (APE) ADVISORY

The North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, Office of Exceptional Children (OEC) is committed to supporting all students with disabilities including students requiring Adapted Physical Education (APE).

The OEC is pleased to announce we have contracted with Dr. Kaky McPeak to provide support in the delivery of APE. Dr. McPeak will assist our Office with the completion of specific deliverables and provide technical assistance to NC Public-School Units (PSUs). Dreama McCoy, Section Chief, will continue to be the point of contact for questions or technical assistance and collaborate with Dr. McPeak on resources and supports. The OEC is committed to continuing to support and advocate for effective services in the area of APE.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Dreama.McCoy@dpi.nc.gov.
