

LOCAL DATA-INFORMED STRATEGIC PLANNING OPPORTUNITY

The Hunt Institute, in partnership with the NC DHHS Division of Child Development and Early Education, is providing county-level human services early childhood leaders with the opportunity to learn how to use and interpret data to inform scalable and sustainable strategic plans. This work builds on the NC Early Childhood Action plan, providing local leaders with support to align state and local improvement efforts.

BY PARTICIPATING, YOU WILL:

-  Learn how to leverage the power of data to strengthen and coordinate your early childhood strategic plan.
-  Build cross-sector relationships with other early childhood leaders in your county.
-  Receive ongoing technical assistance and coaching to develop and evaluate a data-informed local strategic plan.

1

Build your team and apply.

Create a cross-sector collaborative team of 8-12 local early childhood leaders and complete the application by April 8, 2022.

APPLY HERE

2

Attend four virtual meetings.

Develop your expertise on data alongside fellow county leaders during virtual meetings

3

Receive support through 2022.

Take advantage of personalized support to draft, evaluate, and communicate strategic plans, and showcase your finalized local data-informed strategic plans across North Carolina.

TEAMS SHOULD CONSIST OF 8 TO 12 INTERESTED STAKEHOLDERS. STAKEHOLDERS MAY INCLUDE:

| | | |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|--|
| Smart Start Local Partnerships | Head Start & Early Head Start | Home Visiting |
| Early Intervention | School Districts | Business & Faith Communities |
| Child Care Resource & Referral | Private Child Care | Mental Health Agencies |
| NC Pre-K | Social Services | Community Services |
| Local Health Departments | Maternal & Child Health | Family Members & Caregivers |
| Philanthropic Organizations | Education Preparation Programs | Local Policymakers & Elected Officials |

TO LEARN MORE, PLEASE ATTEND
OFFICE HOURS ON MARCH 21ST
18TH AT 2:00PM.

REGISTER

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Karen McKnight

Deputy Director for Early Learning Programs | The Hunt Institute

 Kmcknight@hunt-institute.org

 919.866.9325

Training and technical assistance is funded by the North Carolina Preschool Development Grant.