A screenshot of the Teach NC Facebook page. The page header includes the Teach NC logo, the name "Teach NC", and the handle "@teachNCorg · Education". There is a "Send Message" button. The navigation menu shows "Home", "Events", "About", "Videos", and "More". The "About" section lists key features: "TeachNC has you everything you need to become a teacher. • Build a career roadmap. • Get 1-on-1 expert advice. • Access reimbursements and scholarships." It also shows "351 people like this" and "379 people follow this". A recent post from Teach NC is visible, dated "Yesterday at 11:03 AM", with the text: "The teaching profession is always in demand and our new online tool can help you find the perfect school job in your area. Browse teaching, support and administration opportunities across the whole state all from one, convenient place. http://ow.ly/3znL50AJ8AQ". There are also photo thumbnails at the bottom.

TeachNC: Events & Application Opportunities Submission Form

TeachNC invites our partners to share upcoming events and application opportunities that would be of interest to current or prospective teachers in North Carolina. We will share submissions on the events page of our site (TeachNC.org/events).

Events and application opportunities must meet the following criteria for consideration:

- Be open and relevant to prospective teachers in North Carolina
- Be submitted with adequate information and notice (2-3 weeks before event date or deadline)
- Occur in-person in North Carolina or be accessible virtually
- Application deadlines for teacher prep programs must be designed for individuals pursuing their initial teacher certification (e.g., MAT, alt. certification)

TeachNC reserves the right to exclude events and opportunities from our website and to modify promotional copy to fit within our brand and style guidelines.

Please submit events and opportunities for consideration. We look forward to hearing from you!
