What can I do
today?

This week it is.... Teddies

Monday

Go on a Bear Hunt

- Hide a teddy somewhere around the house.
- Ask your child to go and search for it. You could give your child hints as they try to find the bear, such as “could it be under the chair, behind the curtain, on the bed, inside the wardrobe...?”
- Or you could try giving clues by saying warmer or colder, when you child is near or far from the teddy.
- You could even make a pair of binoculars out of a kitchen roll tube.
- For an older child why not write clues for them to follow until they find it.
- For a baby you could hide the teddy under a blanket and see if they can find it.
- Or play peek- a- boo...
- Why not finish by snuggling up and reading “We’re Going on a Bear Hunt” by Michael Rosen?
