Abstract: The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act requires or authorizes the Bureau to implement new consumer protections in the offering or provision of certain consumer financial products and services. Title of Collection: Industry Survey for the TRID Assessment.

OMB Control Number: 3170–0032.

Type of Review: Request for approval of a generic information collection.

Affected Public: Businesses and other for-profit entities.

Estimated Number of Respondents: 11,906.

Estimated Total Burden Hours: 9,230.

Abstract: The Dodd-Frank Act requires that the Bureau assess its significant rules within 5 years of a rule's effective date. The Bureau has determined that its November 2013 final rule titled "Integrated Mortgage Disclosures Under the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (Regulation X) and the Truth In Lending Act (Regulation Z)" (TRID Rule), with subsequent amendments, is a significant rule. The Act requires that the Bureau's assessment reflect available evidence and data that the Bureau may reasonably collect. This information collection will allow the Bureau to reach out to a cross-section of stakeholders and gather information from them about their experiences with the Rule.

This survey is one part of an overall effort to fulfill the Bureau's obligation to address, among other relevant factors, the effectiveness of the TRID Rule in meeting the purposes and objectives of title X of Dodd-Frank and the specific goals of the Rule as stated by the Bureau. As part of its broader information collection related to the assessment, the Bureau has obtained, or is working to obtain, data from a number of other sources.

Abstract: The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's (Bureau) Office of Community Affairs (OCA) is responsible for developing strategies to improve the financial capability of low-income and economically vulnerable consumers, such as consumers who are unbanked or underbanked, those with thin or no credit file, and households with limited savings. To address the needs of these consumers, OCA has developed Your Money, Your Goals, a suite of financial empowerment materials with an accompanying training program. These resources equip frontline staff and volunteers in a range of organizations to provide relevant and effective information, tools, and resources designed to improve the financial outcomes and capability of these vulnerable consumers. The Bureau seeks to renew OMB approval of this information collection which collects qualitative data related to evaluating the effectiveness of the Your Money, Your Goals training program. The collection focus on evaluating Your Money, Your Goals training practices in enhancing the ability of frontline staff and volunteers to inform and educate low-income consumers about managing their finances. The collection also serves to assess the extent of workshop participants' execution of follow-on trainings, designed to share Your Money, Your Goals tools and resources with other frontline staff and volunteers, so they can use them with the people they serve. The Bureau expects to collect qualitative data through paper-based and web-based surveys. This is a routine request for OMB to renew its approval of the collections of information currently approved under this OMB control number.
