

THE LEARNING ALLY AUDIOBOOK SOLUTION

State-Funded Access to the Learning Ally Audiobook Solution for NC Struggling Readers

The North Carolina Department of Public Instruction provides funding for a limited number of K-12 public and charter school students with print disabilities to access the Learning Ally Audiobook Solution. Featuring the largest library of human-read audiobooks with read-along highlighted text and a suite of educator tools and resources, it is designed to help eligible struggling readers succeed in school and beyond.

Designed for Education

- » Over 80,000 Human-Read Audiobooks – Unlimited Access to the largest library of human-read audiobooks with read-along highlighted text, including curriculum-aligned titles, literature, popular fiction and more.
- » Anytime, Anywhere Access to Content – Students can access audiobooks on nearly any device with our free Learning Ally Audiobooks App, and can even download content to read when there's no wifi available!
- » Easily Manage Student Progress – Access the Learning Ally Educator Portal to manage students, assign books, and track their activity
- » Improved Student Outcomes – Studies show that students can double the rate of reading growth in just 50 days!
