This Chapter shall be known as "Rent Stabilization."

8.52.020 Declaration of Purpose and Findings.

A. The Board of Supervisors finds that there presently exists a critical shortage of rental housing in the unincorporated areas of the County of Los Angeles (County) and surrounding areas. Due to this shortage, it is very difficult to find adequate, safe, and habitable rental housing at reasonable rents.

B. Due to the shortage of rental units, rents in the unincorporated County are increasingly excessively. A substantial number of persons in the unincorporated County who reside in rental units spend a high percentage of their income on rent, and many have been forced to move out because they could no longer afford to pay the increase in rent. Further, low and moderate income tenants have difficulty finding affordable housing after being displaced due to a rent increase or not being able to afford the security deposit at a new location.

C. Accordingly, on November 20, 2018, the Board of Supervisors adopted an Interim Rent Stabilization Ordinance to regulate rent increases and evictions in rental properties in the unincorporated County. Even while the Interim Rent Stabilization Ordinance was in place, the average percentage rent increase request from landlords was 28.23%, amounting to an average increase of $313.59 per month per unit.

D. The purposes of this Chapter are to promote long-term stability and certainty for tenants in the rental market while providing landlords an ability to receive a fair return on their property. This Chapter regulates rents and terminations of tenancy, including requiring relocation assistance and affording a tenant the right to return under certain circumstances. It requires landlords to register rental property, establishes an administrative hearing process, and provides for procedures and guidelines for the implementation of this Chapter.

E. The Board of Supervisors finds that the protections provided in this Chapter are more restrictive, or provide greater benefits than those set forth in California Civil Code section 1946.2 in areas relating to annual rent increases, evictions, relocation assistance for displaced tenants, protections against harassment, discrimination of tenants and residential applicants, and other tenant protections that are not preempted or otherwise precluded by any other provision of law.

a. Any crime or act of violence committed by a Tenant of a Dwelling Unit which involves use of a gun or a deadly weapon, or inflicts serious bodily injury and for which a police report has been filed, but not a crime or act of violence that is committed against a person residing in the same Dwelling Unit as the person committing the crime; convey to the person threatened, a gravity of purpose and an immediate prospect of execution of the threat, and thereby causes that person reasonably to be in sustained fear for his or her own safety or for his or her immediate family's safety, but not including a threat that is committed against a person who is residing in the same Dwelling Unit as the person making the threat;

c. Tenant has created or is maintaining a dangerous and unsanitary condition and that condition has not been promptly abated or repaired after written notice to the Tenant from the Landlord and the passage of a reasonable cure period; or

The act or acts constituting domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the Tenant or a member of the Tenant's household cannot form the substantial basis of a For Cause termination of the Tenancy. The Tenant or a member of the Tenant's household may raise such facts as an affirmative defense to a Landlord's termination of the Tenancy.

4. Failure to Sign Substantially Similar Lease. The Tenant has refused to agree to a new written Rental Agreement upon expiration of a prior Rental Agreement, but only if the new Rental Agreement contains provisions that are substantially identical to the prior written Rental Agreement, and is consistent with federal, State, and local laws. For purposes of this Subsection, the Landlord's written request or demand must be received no later than ninety (90) days before final day of Tenancy of the prior Rental Agreement.

5. Failure to Vacate as Required by Approved Relocation Application.

The Tenant has failed to vacate the Dwelling Unit as required by a relocation application that has been approved by the County, including relocation applications received from a Landlord to comply with a government order.

6. Households Exceeding Income Limits in Government Regulated

Units. A Landlord may discontinue future renewals of a Rental Agreement if the Tenant's household income exceeds the income limits for a Dwelling Unit with rents that are controlled or regulated by any government unit, agency, or authority pursuant to a regulatory agreement or other recorded encumbrance that limits use and occupancy of the Dwelling Unit by a Tenant household with specified incomes. The Landlord must provide one year written notice to discontinue future renewals of the Rental Agreement based solely on the certified Tenant household income.

E. No-Fault Termination of Tenancy. If a Landlord can show any of the following circumstances with respect to a termination of Tenancy in a Dwelling Unit, the termination qualifies as a No-Fault termination.

1. Landlord or Landlord's Family Member Occupancy. A Landlord who owns a Dwelling Unit seeks in good faith to recover possession of said Dwelling Unit for the Landlord's own use and occupancy as the Landlord's principal residence for at least thirty-six (36) consecutive months, or for the use and occupancy as the principal residence by the Landlord's Family Member for at least thirty-six (36) consecutive months.

a. Sixty-Day Notice Period. A Landlord must provide the Tenant sixty (60) days written notice that the Landlord intends to terminate the Tenancy. The Tenant may not waive the required sixty (60) days' notice.

b. Fifty-Percent Ownership Interest. In order to evict for Landlord or Landlord's Family Member occupancy, the Landlord must possess legal title to at least fifty percent (50%) of the building or be a beneficiary with an interest of at least fifty percent (50%) in a trust that owns the building. If the Landlord is a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, then each individual who intends to evict a Tenant under this Section and occupy the Dwelling Unit, must have at least a fifty percent (50%) beneficial interest in that business entity. Additionally, if two persons purchase a duplex and each own fifty percent (50%) of the building each may evict a Tenant under this Section.

c. Dwelling Unit Limitation. A Landlord with less than one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in a property may occupy only one Dwelling Unit. A Landlord with one hundred percent (100%) ownership interest in a property may occupy up to two Dwelling Units within the building.

d. A Landlord may only terminate a Tenancy under this Section if the Landlord or Landlord's Family Member who will reside in the Dwelling Unit is similarly situated as the Tenant, who is being displaced:

(i) If the Tenant is at least sixty-two (62) years of age or older, then the Landlord or the Landlord's Family Member who will reside in the Dwelling Unit must also be sixty-two (62) years of age or older;

(ii) If the Tenant is a person with a disability who has a physical or mental impairment that limits one or more of a person's major life activities within the meaning of the California Fair Housing and Employment Act pursuant to California Government Code section 12926, then the Landlord or the Landlord's Family Member who will reside in the Dwelling Unit must also be a person with a disability;

(iii) If the Tenant has a terminal illness as verified by their medical primary care provider then the Landlord or the Landlord's Family Member who will reside in the Dwelling Unit must also have a terminal illness; or

(iv) If the Tenant is a low-income tenant (low-income tenant means a person and family whose income does not exceed the qualifying limits for lower income families as established and amended from time to time pursuant to Section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, or as otherwise defined in California Health and Safety Code section 50079.5), then the Landlord or the Landlord's Family Member who will reside in the Dwelling Unit must also be a low-income individual.

e. It shall be rebuttably presumed that the Landlord has not acted in good faith if the Landlord or the Landlord's Family Member for whom the Tenant was displaced does not move into the Dwelling Unit within sixty (60) days and occupy said unit as that person's principal residence for a minimum of thirty-six (36) consecutive months.

2. Withdrawal of Dwelling Units from Rental Market. A Landlord seeks to withdraw from the residential rental market pursuant to the Ellis Act, subject to the following conditions and requirements:

d. Landlord's notice to all affected Tenants shall contain the following information:

(i) That the Landlord is evicting the Tenant pursuant to this Subsection and will provide the County with the written notice required in this Section;

(ii) That within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice to terminate, the Tenant may notify the Landlord in writing that the Tenant would be interested in re-renting the Dwelling Unit if any of the Dwelling Units are re-offered for rent at a future time and advising the Tenant to notify the Landlord of future address changes.

(iii) A description of the Tenant's rights.

(iv) The notice shall be accompanied by relocation assistance and any additional special assistance provided to the Tenant in accordance with Section 8.52.110; and

e. The following Tenants who have resided in the Dwelling Unit for at least one year prior to the Landlord's notice of intent to withdraw the Dwelling Unit in a building or structure from the residential rental market, and after receiving one hundred twenty (120) days written notice, may submit a written request to the Landlord to receive an extension of one year from the Tenant's date of notice:

(i) A Tenant who is at least sixty-two (62) years of age;
or

b. If it is determined by any government agency or court that the Tenant is at fault for the condition or conditions triggering the order or need to vacate under this Section, the Tenant shall not be entitled to relocation assistance as outlined in Section 8.52.110.

4. Tenant's Right of First Return.

a. Return Within Five (5) Years of Covered Rental Unit. A Tenant of a Covered Rental Unit whose Tenancy was terminated in accordance with this Section is entitled to receive notice of the first right to return to rent the same Covered Rental Unit previously charged for the Covered Rental Unit plus any annual general increases available under this Chapter. The Landlord must deliver the notice to the Tenant in a form approved by the Department. A Tenant may return to the Covered Rental Unit if:

(i) The Tenant has provided the Landlord a current mailing address and/or email address at which to receive notice from Landlord that Covered Rental Unit is available for Rent; and

c. Any Tenant displaced from a Dwelling Unit in connection with the withdrawal of a building containing a Dwelling Unit from the residential rental market may request the first right of return from the Landlord within thirty (30) days of receipt by the County of a Landlord's written notice of intent to return the Dwelling Unit to the residential rental market.

d. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to relieve the Landlord of the obligation to directly contact the former Tenant and to advise the Tenant that the withdrawn Dwelling Unit will again be offered for Rent. Notice shall be on a form approved by the Department.

e. Registry. The County may create a registry of Tenant contact information for use by Tenants and Landlords to facilitate communication regarding the first right of return. Each Landlord shall use relevant information in the registry, in addition to information provided voluntarily by each Tenant, when complying with first right of return obligations and relocation assistance under this Chapter.

5. Fees. The County may establish fees for County-incurred costs that shall be paid by a Landlord who exercises the ability to withdraw Covered Rental Units from rent or lease. The County shall set the fee so as to recover all costs of administering the provisions of this Chapter. The fees shall be paid to the County prior to the Landlord's service of the notice to withdraw the Dwelling Units on any Tenant. Failure to pay the fees prior to service of the notice to the Tenants shall invalidate such notice.

6. Recordation of Memorandum. The Landlord shall record a memorandum on a County approved form with the County's Registrar Recorder/County Clerk encumbering the property where the Dwelling Unit is located within ten (10) days of providing notice to the County of the Landlord's intent to withdraw the Dwelling Units from the residential rental market.

a. The memorandum must be executed by the fee owner(s) of the property.

b. The memorandum shall summarize the obligations of the fee owner and Landlord, and any successor in interest to the fee owner and Landlord
