punishable under, Article 11 of Portuguese Law 34/87 of 16 July 1987, as amended by Law 41/2010 of 3 September 2010 (apparently accompanied by unlawful financial gain, pursuant to, and punishable under, Article 23(1), and embezzlement, pursuant to, and punishable under, Article 20(1) of the same law), accompanied in fact by an offence involving the fraudulent receipt of a grant or subsidy, pursuant to, and punishable under, Article 36(1)(a) (1)(c), (2), (5)(a), (5)(b) and (8)(b) of Decree-Law 28/84 of 20 January 1984;

- B. whereas Álvaro Amaro served as mayor of Guarda from 2013, a position to which he was re-elected in 2017 and which he occupied until 11 April 2019; whereas, in the performance of his duties as mayor, he was responsible for the political and administrative management of the municipality of Guarda; whereas the subject of the investigation is the preferential treatment that Guarda municipal council allegedly granted to a theatre company and cooperative in early 2014 in connection with the organisation of the carnival festivities that year;
- C. whereas Álvaro Amaro was elected to the European Parliament in May 2019;

- H. whereas the offences of which Álvaro Amaro is accused took place prior to his election to the European Parliament;
- I. whereas, in this case, Parliament found no evidence of fumus persecutionis, i.e. factual elements which suggest that the intention underlying the legal proceedings in question is to undermine the Member's political activity, including his activity as a Member of the European Parliament;
- J. whereas Parliament cannot assume the role of a court, and whereas, in a waiver of immunity procedure, a Member cannot be regarded as a defendant²;
