Fifth anniversary of the Peace Agreement in Colombia

Joint motion for a resolution

Recital D

Joint motion for a resolution

D. whereas former guerrilla fighters are also moving forward in their process to reintegrate into civilian life, and whereas the legal and constitutional system in Colombia is adopting precise reforms to ensure the agreement commitments are implemented and the future of the country can be built on them;

Amendment

D. whereas the FARC-EP have systematically breached the Peace Agreement:

- they have not fully recognised their responsibility for serious crimes and human rights violations including extrajudicial executions, kidnapping, sexual crimes, forced abortions, the use of non-conventional weapons and weapons prohibited by international humanitarian law;
- they have not fully complied with their obligation to deliver the illicit goods accumulated over decades, for out of the goods worth reported EUR 236 million, they had only delivered around EUR 12 million by the deadline of 31 December 2020;
- they have breached their demobilisation commitment, and only 85 % of the 13 202 demobilised members of the FARC continue participating in the peace process;
