- Ramadan may be a few weeks away but it's likely to coincide with many second doses of the COVID-19 vaccine (and some first doses). Don't worry and don't delay getting your vaccine. @BritishIMA has confirmed it WON'T invalidate your fast.
- Can Muslims take COVID vaccines whilst fasting in Ramadan? As per the majority of Islamic Scholars, taking the COVID vaccines currently licenced does not invalidate the fast. Information source. For more information about COVID vaccines visit www.britishima.org/operation-vaccination/hub/
- Does your COVID-19 vaccine coincide with Ramadan? If yes please be assured that receiving the vaccine won't invalidate the Ramadan fast.
- The COVID-19 vaccine will not break fast. See below Q&A from @BritishIMA
- @BritishIMA advise that Muslims can and should take the COVID-19 vaccine during Ramadan as this will not invalidate Ramadan fast. For more information go to www.britishima.org/operation-vaccination/hub/
