

SKILLS Development Fund

$10 Million | Train Your Workforce | Transform Your Business.

TEXAS WORKFORCE COMMISSION SKILLS DEVELOPMENT FUND COVID-19 SPECIAL INITIATIVE

Training for Texas Businesses

Texas businesses impacted by COVID-19 may obtain training for existing employees and new hires. The Skills Development Fund pays for the training through partnerships with public community and technical colleges, Workforce Development Boards and Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX).

For more information on how to access available training, contact us at:
SmallBizC19@twc.state.tx.us

Visit: <https://www.twc.texas.gov/partners/skills-development-fund>

A proud partner of the americanjobcenter network

TRAINING FOR BUSINESSES

$10 Million in grant awards to eligible applicants responding to the training needs of business partners

FUNDING AVAILABILITY

In order to respond quickly to COVID-19 needs, and the daily changes to these priorities, TWC proposes to award funds directly to an Eligible Applicant

Training Providers & Applicants

- Public Community and technical college
- Local Workforce Development Boards (in Partnership with a third-party training provider)
- Texas A&M Engineering Extension (TEEX)