Above and Beyond

Above and Beyond is the incredible story of the escape from Nazi-occupied Europe by Bruce Sundlun, a Jewish-American B-17 pilot. While on the run from the Germans for over six months, Sundlun “borrowed” more than 100 bicycles from unsuspecting shoppers to get around Belgium and France, was hidden and protected by courageous Catholic priests, fought alongside the French Resistance, and was recruited to spy for the Office of Strategic Services, the precursor to today’s CIA.
