

or significant loss of any controlled substance within one business day of discovery of the theft or loss, and must complete and send to the DEA a DEA Form 106 upon determination of a theft or significant loss. The DEA Form 106 is designed to provide a uniform method of reporting and recording thefts and losses of controlled substances as required by 21 U.S.C. 827, 21 CFR 1301.74(c) and 1301.76(b). The form is entitled "Report of Theft or Loss of Controlled Substances" and it is used by the DEA to help determine the quantities and types of controlled substances that are stolen or lost. It may also serve as a record of the theft or loss for the registrant. The form is being revised to mirror the DEA Form 107, entitled "Report of Theft or Loss of Listed Chemicals."

Notice of a Change in Status of the Extended Benefit (EB) Program for New York

AGENCY: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

ACTION: Notice.

This notice announces a change in benefit payment status under the EB program for New York.

The following change has occurred since the publication of the last notice regarding New York's EB status:

New York's 13-week insured unemployment rate (IUR) for the week ending April 19, 2020 was 5.27 percent, which exceeds 120 percent of the corresponding rate in the prior two years. This IUR caused New York to be triggered "on" to an EB period that began May 4, 2020. The State will remain in an EB period for a minimum of 13 weeks.

The trigger notice covering state eligibility for the EB program can be found at: http://oui.doleta.gov/unemploy/claims_arch.asp.

Information for Claimants

The duration of benefits payable in the EB program and the terms and conditions on which they are payable are governed by the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended, and the operating instructions issued to the states by the U.S. Department of Labor. In the case of a state beginning an EB period, the State Workforce Agency will furnish a written notice of potential entitlement to each individual who has exhausted all rights to regular benefits and is potentially eligible for EB (20 CFR 615.13 (c) (1)).

Persons who believe they may be entitled to EB, or who wish to inquire about their rights under the program, should contact their State Workforce Agency.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Office of Unemployment Insurance Room S-4524, Attn: Kevin Stapleton, 200 Constitution Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20210, telephone number: (202)-693-3009 (this is not a toll-free number) or by email: Stapleton.Kevin@dol.gov.

Signed in Washington, DC.

John Pallasch,

Assistant Secretary for Employment and Training.
