

means EPA will not know your identity or contact information unless you provide it in the body of your comment. If you send an email comment directly to EPA without going through <https://www.regulations.gov>, your email address will be automatically captured and included as part of the comment that is placed in the public docket and made available on the internet. If you submit an electronic comment, EPA recommends that you include your name and other contact information in the body of your comment and with any disk or CD-ROM you submit. If EPA cannot read your comment due to technical difficulties and cannot contact you for clarification, EPA may not be able to consider your comment. Electronic files should avoid the use of special characters, any form of encryption, and be free of any defects or viruses.

Docket: All documents in the docket are listed in the <https://www.regulations.gov> index, Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-SFUND-2005-0011. Although listed in the index, some information is not publicly available, e.g., CBI or other information whose disclosure is restricted by statute. Certain other material, such as copyrighted material, will be publicly available only in hard copy. Publicly available docket materials are available electronically at <https://www.regulations.gov>, Docket ID No. EPA-HQ-SFUND-2005-0011 and at <https://www.epa.gov/superfund/scrap-processing> or you may contact the person in the FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT section for additional availability information.

The EPA is temporarily suspending its Docket Center and Regional Records Centers for public visitors to reduce the risk of transmitting COVID-19. In addition, many site information repositories are closed and information in these repositories, including the deletion docket, has not been updated with hardcopy or electronic media. For further information and updates on EPA Docket Center services, please visit us online at <https://www.epa.gov/dockets>.

The EPA continues to carefully and continuously monitor information from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), local area health departments, and our Federal partners so that we can respond rapidly as conditions change regarding COVID-19.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the “Rules and Regulations” Section of this issue of the Federal Register, we are publishing a direct final Notification of Deletion of the Scrap Processing Site without prior Notification of Intent to Delete because EPA views this as a noncontroversial revision and anticipates no adverse comment(s). We have explained our reasons for this deletion in the preamble to the direct final Notification of Deletion, and those reasons are incorporated herein. If we receive no adverse comment(s) on this deletion action, we will not take further action on this Notification of Intent to Delete. If we receive adverse comment(s), we will withdraw the direct final Notification of Deletion, and it will not take effect. We will, as appropriate, address all public comments in a subsequent final Notification of Deletion based on this Notification of Intent to Delete. We will not institute a second comment period on this Notification of Intent to Delete. Any parties interested in commenting must do so at this time.

For additional information, see the direct final Notification of Deletion which is located in the Rules section of this issue of the Federal Register.
