

ALEX STAYBOLDT BOZZETTE LECTURE

SCRIPPS MERCY HOSPITAL GRAND ROUNDS

Breaking our Code of Silence: What we can do about healthcare professional burnout, depression and suicide

Sidney Zisook, MD

Distinguished Professor and Residency Training Director
University of California San Diego

DATE: Tuesday, September 20, 2016

TIME: 8:00 am- 9:00 am

LOCATIONS: Scripps Mercy Hospital

San Diego campus: West Auditorium
4077 5th Ave. San Diego CA 92103

Chula Vista campus: Conference Library
435 H Street, Chula Vista CA 91910

In memory of Alexander L.
Stayboldt Bozzette,
MPH. Alex believed that “Everyone everywhere deserves
to be healthy.”

To that end he traveled extensively and used his education, experience and passion to help the oppressed. Alex was born at Mercy Hospital and this photo is from the 2015 Mercy Ball.

After attending this educational activity, participants will be able to

1. Discuss healthcare professional burnout and approaches to maximize wellness and engagement
2. Recognize healthcare professional depression and destigmatize treatment for ourselves and others
3. Understand the high rates of suicide among healthcare professionals and approaches to prevention

Accreditation Scripps Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Scripps Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA/PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure It is the policy of Scripps Health to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all sponsored educational programs. Course Directors, planning committees, faculty and all others who are in a position to control the content of any educational activity sponsored by Scripps Health are required to disclose any real or apparent conflicts of interest related to the subject matter of the educational activity.