Paragraph 4 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4a. Stresses that the country-specific recommendations are a blatant affront to sovereign, democratic decision-making by the Member States' peoples concerning the future of their countries; recalls that these recommendations have focused on liberalising and privatising strategic sectors of the economy (energy, transport, telecommunications and banking), imposing labour market flexibility, eliminating labour rights, containing rises in – or even reducing – wages and pensions, cutting public spending on social support, health and education and, thereby, cutting social entitlements;

Paragraph 29 a (new)

Amendment

29a. Notes that in several Member States wages, and not just minimum wages, need to be increased across the board as a matter of national urgency; urges, therefore, the Commission to abstain from interfering in this matter, for instance by neither blackmailing nor exerting any pressure on those Member States that wish to tackle this emergency;
