Motion for a resolution

B9-0208/2021

PPE, S&D, Renew, Verts/ALE, The Left

Application of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092, the rule-of-law conditionality mechanism

Motion for a resolution

Recital B a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

Ba. whereas Poland and Hungary have brought lawsuits to the Court of Justice of the European Union questioning the legality of the rule-of-law conditionality mechanism; whereas Article 7 of the TEU demands that the existence of a serious and persistent breach of the principles enshrined in Article 2 of the TEU may only be determined by unanimous decision; whereas Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2020/2092 on the rule-of-law conditionality mechanism undermines the Treaty, as the Council did not adopt it unanimously;

Motion for a resolutionParagraph 6Motion for a resolution*

6. Recalls that the Commission ‘shall be completely independent’, and its members ‘shall neither seek nor take instructions from any Government’ in accordance with Article 17(3) of the TEU and Article 245 of the TFEU; recalls further that in accordance with Article 17(8) of the TEU, the Commission ‘shall be responsible to the European Parliament’;

Amendment

6. Recalls that the Commission ‘shall be completely independent’, and its members ‘shall neither seek nor take instructions from any Government’ in accordance with Article 17(3) of the TEU and Article 245 of the TFEU; recalls further that in accordance with Article 17(8) of the TEU, the Commission ‘shall be responsible to the European Parliament’; notes that the Commission has evolved into a political player rather than the Guardian of the Treaties; underlines that the Member States are, and should remain, the Masters of the Treaties; considers that the Commission has unhealthily outgrown the role it was assigned by the Treaties;

Paragraph 14 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

14a. Calls for the EU to be reformed to become a Europe which upholds the sovereignty and identity of our European nations and peoples; calls for the EU institutions and the Member States to abandon their economically and politically disastrous centralising vision of ‘ever closer union’ in favour of a more restrained type of European cooperation which respects the EU Treaties with its principles of national sovereignty, democracy, transparency, strict subsidiarity and accountability;
