Guidelines for the 2022 budget – Section III
(2020/2265(BUI))

Motion for a resolutionParagraph 27Motion for a resolution*

27. Takes note of the fact that the 2021-2027 multiannual financial framework provides for higher amounts than in previous years for the implementation of migration, asylum and integration policies; expects asylum and migration to remain high on the EU's agenda; stresses that solidarity measures such as relocation programmes, resettlement or humanitarian admission remain crucial pending meaningful reform of the Common European Asylum System; highlights, in that regard, that Member States will continue to require financial support for the reception, registration and examination of asylum applications, as well as for returns and relocation; calls for more funding to be directed towards coordination with transit countries and countries of origin of irregular migration with the aim of controlling and stopping human trafficking and human smuggling; is deeply concerned by the continuing loss of life in the Mediterranean and believes that search and rescue is a responsibility that cannot be left exclusively to non-state actors; adds that non-EU countries at the Union's external borders that are faced with migration flows to the EU will also continue to require financial support; highlights the important role of the European Border and Coast Guard (Frontex) in this regard and its recently enhanced mandate, and calls for
