Recital A

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

A. whereas the proposal for a Council regulation represents a step forward in making the work of the Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA) broadly more effective by enabling it to operate fully in all areas of Union competence and by clarifying its tasks and working methods, while respecting the principles of proportionality and subsidiarity; whereas it is regrettable that the legal basis of this currently requires unanimity in the Council and the approval of Parliament, meaning that Parliament's involvement in the reform is limited;

A. whereas the proposal for a Council regulation represents a step forward in making the work of the Fundamental Rights Agency (FRA) effective by enabling it to operate within well-defined boundaries and Union competences, while respecting Member States' sovereignty and constitutional order, and by clarifying its tasks and working methods;

Paragraph 3

Motion for a resolution

3. Reaffirms its willingness to enable the FRA to operate fully in all areas of Union competence and to fulfil its role as designated by the EU legislators, and therefore to identify the principles and conditions under which it might give its consent; regrets, in this context, Parliament's limited involvement in the FRA reform and underlines its preference for an ordinary legislative procedure; in line with other JHA agencies, calls on the Commission to allocate the FRA an adequately increased budget, in order to fully fulfil its role; acknowledges the need to provide the FRA with adequately specialised staff;

Amendment

3. Reaffirms its willingness to enable the FRA to operate fully within well-defined boundaries and Union competences, while respecting Member States' sovereignty and constitutional order, and to fulfil its role as devised by the EU legislators, and therefore to identify the principles and conditions under which it might give its consent;

Paragraph 4, point (iii), subparagraph 2 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

In view of the severe restrictions and measures pertaining to public and private life, which have been imposed by EU Member States during the COVID-19 pandemic and which are unprecedented in peacetime, the FRA should include in its upcoming annual programming an analysis of these restrictive measures from the perspective of respect for fundamental rights, with a particular focus on anti-discrimination, religious freedom and Article 3 of the EU Charter;
